Do you have guests
coming in for the holidays?
Treat them to a visit to the Little Traveler at Christmastime.

They'll enjoy wandering through our maze of rooms, each of which is aglow with its own theme of Christmas décor. And while you're here, why not savor lunch or a late-afternoon treat in our Atrium Café? We'd love to see you all.

Decorate your home... for the holidays and beyond

From linens and wall décor to paper goods, we can help you create perfect holiday settings.

Beautiful tables are our specialty!

New holiday linens are in for Christmas, and we're prepared to help you create a full story with your tablescape. Table cloths, runners, table toppers, placemats, napkins, throws and pillows are beautifully made in various fabrics and textures and embellished with beading, embroidery, tassels and cutout patterns. Many are reversible to give you two patterns to enjoy. We've even had manufacturers create unique linens to our specifications just for our Little Traveler customers! Have a large table? No problem. We're your headquarters for tablecloths in unusual sizes ranging up to 144 inches in length. From traditional to dressy patterns, we have it all!

Cork-backed placemats are back!

We're pleased to present beautiful styles of corked-back, hard-finished placemats created by Jason of New Zealand. These favorites are heat resistant and wipe clean. Choose from lovely holiday patterns as well as everyday styles.

Cuddle up with a Little Traveler throw

Dress up your sofa, chair or mantle this winter with a beautiful throw. Choose your favorite from quilted, knitted and velvet styles which have all been embellished with sequins, beading and amazing stitchery. They are all so beautiful you can even hang them as wall art or top a table. Coordinating holiday pillows are available, as well.

Diffusers, soaps, and lotions bring in the scents of the season!

One of the biggest sellers in home décor this season has been scented oils and reed diffusers. Reed fragrance diffusers are a wonderful way to enhance the scent of your space with fruit, floral and herbal fragrances. They last longer than flowers and are safer than candles. Among our collection is Agraria, the oldest and largest luxury home fragrance company in America, which recently made the "O" list as one of Oprah's favorites! Agraria uses natural botanicals from around the world to create its essential oils. Complete the collection with its impressive soaps, bath salts and even scented tassels to hang from light fixtures. In addition, we're showcasing a variety of holiday soaps, lotions, gels and bath fizzies carrying the look, names and scents of the season, from apple pie to Christmas tree!

Bring some fun into your ho-ho-holidays with decorative novelty hand towels and soaps. Hand-towels are available in soft terry and linen designs an array of holiday colors. And our holiday soaps are artistically created in fun shapes and colors. They're as much fun to give as gifts as to use.

Hello! Thomas Edison here!

He's one of the most important inventors in our nation's history. Thomas Edison, as portrayed by Chicago actor R.J. Lindsey, will be at The Little Traveler, Monday, Nov. 24, to discuss his life and how he invented such amazing items from the phonograph to the light bulb. Where would we be today without him? This entertaining program will begin with breakfast at 9 a.m. in our Atrium Café. Our Fulton Street entrance will open at 8:30. Registration fee is $18 and includes breakfast and a $5 coupon to be used on the day of the show. For reservations, call after 9:30 a.m. on Nov. 11.

'Mr. Claus,' a new cheerful line of dinnerware.

Our Stationery Room... a holiday store within itself

Little Traveler paper goods make entertaining a breeze

The Little Traveler has long had the reputation of offering beautiful and high quality paper party products, so when it comes to holiday parties, we bring out the finest. With beautiful colors and patterns, including everything from traditional looks to fun novelty designs, most of our paper goods can be mixed and matched to add excitement to the table. We also carry a full line of Spode paper products that complement your fine Spode but make clean-up a treat.

Greeting cards, Advent calendars & more!

With the largest selections of beautiful Advent calendars and impressive boxed greeting cards, we are sure you can find exactly what you're looking for. Available in a variety of sizes, our advent calendars are among the most sought-after holiday items that we carry. They don't last long. And our greeting cards, many of which are packaged in stylish boxes, help you send your true feelings along with holiday greetings.

Gift wrap and gift bags are our specialty

Why put a gift in any bag when you can extend the gift giving with a Little Traveler gift bag? We enjoy hand-selecting our many styles of holiday bags to bring in each season. With dozens of styles and sizes to choose from—even felt ones that light up!--they're high quality and impressively designed. Gift giving is easy and fun. If you're more into wrapping, we're there for you, too. The Little Traveler has long been known for its stylish gift wrap with many designs, including hard-to-find sheet styles.

Finish off your packages with our lovely ribbon

We're pleased to be able to offer yards and yards of lovely decorator ribbons... velvets, fabrics, plaids and solids, many of which are reinforced with wire. With so many designs and colors to choose from, we long to start wrapping ourselves up for Christmas!

Say Merry Christmas in 'Sign' language

Pay tribute to the season with decorative signs to hang or stand up on easels. Ceramic and slate designs feature traditional and spiritual sayings and artistic holiday images. They're available in many sizes, allowing you to decorate even the tiniest of empty wall spaces.

A letter from a friend

Dear Friends at the Little Traveler,

I am writing to thank you. When I was seven years old my mother brought me to the Little Traveler for my first of many visits. I got all dressed up and wore my shiny patent leather shoes, something I only got to do on special occasions. We drove for what seemed like forever. When we got there I thought I had entered a whole different world. I was used to department stores and malls and never knew shopping could be such a magical experience! What a delight it was to walk in and see the old world of charm of the Traveler. We sat down to lunch and I felt so grown up. It will remain one of my favorite memories.

As I got older, my mother continued to bring me to the Little Traveler for special occasions. The day of my senior prom, the day before I left for college, the day before my wedding, and the week before my daughter was born are just a few of those memorable days. From you I have purchased my first piece of Brighton, my son's first pair of Crocs, and my daughter's first Madame Alexander doll.

Not all that long ago, it seems, I dressed my own daughter in a party dress and patent leather shoes and brought her in for lunch. I loved watching her face as she roamed from room to room looking at all the beautiful things. I look forward to carrying on the tradition with my daughter. Thank you. Sincerely, Wendy Covalsky, Streamwood

Wendy will receive a $50 gift certificate as a token of our thanks for this lovely note.

TRAVELERLOGUE

*What's new and exciting
at The Little Traveler*

- Model ships including amazingly detailed replicas of the Mayflower, the Constitution and other impressive single- and multi-masted sailboats and ships. A perfect gift for the man in your life.

- Old-fashioned travel trunks in plaid, floral and travel-stamped patterns, these trunks come in various sizes and can be used for storage, as occasional furnishings or to take on trips!

- Battery-operated candles are just as pretty to look at but perfectly safe to use anywhere. Available in pillar styles and various colors.

- Classic dinnerware and servingware from Johnson Brothers of England. We're pleased to re-introduce beautiful patterns that were popular several decades ago: His Majesty, featuring a proud, impressively detailed turkey, and Friendly Village, a lovely winter scene. Now made by Wedgwood artisans, these collections will complete your holiday tablescape with place settings and an expansive collection of serving pieces. Unlike years past, these are now dishwasher, microwave and freezer safe.

- An appealing new line of Cranberry Glass, crafted by adding gold into molten glass, features impressive contemporary and vintage looks.

- Limoges boxes from France in fanciful new holiday designs and dozens of additional styles. Our assortment of these hand-painted collectible porcelain boxes is among the biggest in the Chicago area.

Don't miss our annual Byers' Choice event

If you love setting up your Byers' Choice carolers each holiday season, you'll love this special event. We've set aside Dec. 6, to pay tribute to these collectible folk. Meet a Byers' Choice rep, see what's new in the line this year and sign up to win a special prize.

Ring in the Holidays at Geneva's Christmas Walk

You'll certainly get into the spirit of the holidays as you stroll through the streets of Geneva on Friday, Dec. 5 during the annual 'Christmas Walk' fest. The Little Traveler will join in the fun as we invite our friends to shop and browse until well into the evening.
Our own elves have been busily preparing for the season by decorating the outside of our Victorian mansion with thousands of tiny white lights and one-of-a-kind, uniquely designed garlands, wreaths, swags and trees throughout the shop. Don't forget to stop by the Atrium Café for our delicious homemade cookies. Yes, we said homemade! Of course, you can purchase your tickets for the House Tours - a close-up look at five luxuriously decorated Geneva homes -- right in our shop. For a complete listing, contact the Geneva Chamber of Commerce at 630-232-6060 or www.genevachamber.com.

Our Christmas Suite is filled to the brim with wonderful gifts and home decorating items perfect for your...

Heavenly Angels in everything from glittery gold and pure white, from tiny to tall, they'll add the spirit of the season to any room.

Ornaments by the hundreds and in many themes, including sports, gambling, wildlife, birds, crystals, religious,
states, and, of course, the holidays.

Lovely Tree Skirts, stockings and pillows created in luxurious and traditional fabrics from quilted linens to velvets and lace. Companion stockings complete the look. And toss in a couple of fun holiday pillows for soft, comfy fun.

Ice-Topped Glitter Trees are among our expansive collection of trees. Silver and gold glitter, poinsettia-designed fabric and stacked ornament balls are among the materials used to make these unique trees.

Dutiful Nutcrackers are standing at attention, but are anything but boring. This year's troop is glittery, humorous with items popping out of their hats, and shimmery with gold capes.

Arrangements artfully made by our own designers are on display throughout our shop. Ready-made centerpieces, wreaths, swags and garlands are one-of-a kind and Little Traveler special!

You'll love our Snowbabies. They're still a favorite of collectors, looking all snuggly and chubby in their snowsuits and playing in the snow. See who are the newest arrivals!

Santa's here in many shapes and sizes far from traditional - he's getting ready to ski, wearing hand-knit sweaters and folksy clothes, or dressed in an Old-World style full-length fur-trimmed coats. He's a large, whimsical bell or immersed in a snow machine. He's taking a cat nap in a sleigh or carrying a beautiful floral garland. Stop in to catch him while he's here.

Does your favorite clock need repair?

Bring it to the Little Traveler on Saturday, Dec. 6, during a visit by expert clock repairman Jim Denno.
He will be in our Antiques Department from 10 a.m.-4:30 p.m., meeting customers, inspecting the clocks and offering repair estimates.

We have Swarovski Crystal's 2008 holiday ornaments.
Trim your tree or adorn a special gift with the delicate "stocking" and "Santa hat!"
Find them in our Crystal Room while supplies last.

Celebrate the Season with the annual Department 56 Event

Kick off the holiday season at The Little Traveler during the annual Department 56 "Celebrate the Holidays" event. During this special time of year, we are offering new and longtime collectors the opportunity to turn their houses into villages by acquiring new charming houses and delightful accessories.

This year, pick up special new Holiday value sets, including The Snow Village's "Lyndale Tree Lot," Christmas in the City's "Miller & Sons Hardware and Garden Center," Dickens' Village's "Barton's Holiday Greens," and The North Pole Village's "Brite Lites Bulb Factory." Each set features accessory pieces. Regularly priced at $100, the sets are priced at $79 for this event.

Our Department 56 room features a unique professionally designed display for each of the villages. Visit today for decorating and display ideas and to acquire many lighted houses, buildings and accessories.

2008 Retirement date for Department 56

Villages and accessories is Nov. 1.

Check with our own Department 56 specialists to find out the latest on these highly collectible pieces.

Send your heirloom crystal pieces

If you have a favorite crystal piece that is broken or chipped and you would love to use it in your holiday decorating this year, fret not! Crystal repair artist Mary Lou Gates will be in our shop's Crystal Room from 9:30a.m.-4:30 p.m. Nov. 12, to repair items on site. Repair estimates will be presented prior to completion of the work.

Enjoy a visit with

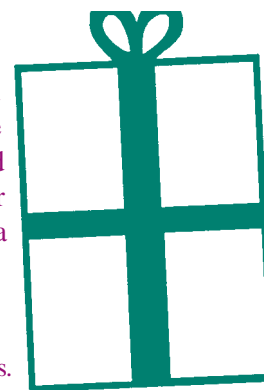

Mrs. Santa Claus

Talk about perfect timing. Children ages four and up can get their last-minute holiday lists to the North Pole by giving them to the Big Guy's better half. Yes, Mrs. Claus herself will be at The Little Traveler on Dec. 13 and 20, having a yummy breakfast with little ones and their parents, and then presenting a fun holiday program. This is a great chance to learn all about the workshops in the North Pole, and to see if you are on the Naughty or Nice List. The merry time begins at 9 a.m. Tickets are $10 for children for the meal and program, $12 for adults for the meal and a $5 coupon. Reservations will be taken by phone only beginning at 9:30 a.m. on Nov. 17 for both shows.

Teacher gifts are our specialty

'Tis the season to say thank you, fa la la la, la, la, la, la. Yes teachers should be thanked for all of their hard work, and we've taken the hard work of looking for their gifts away from you! Need a great idea for a teacher gift? How about...

A Holiday Little Traveler Recipe

Warm Apple Spice Cake

Cake:

1/2 C. unsalted butter
1/4 C. whipping cream
1 C. packed brown sugar
1/2 C. toasted pecans
2 Granny Smith apples, peeled, cored and thinly sliced

1 Box Robert Rothschild Spice Cupcakes with Gingerbread Frosting*

1-1/4 C. water
1/3 C. vegetable oil
3 Eggs

Topping:

2/3 C. Gingerbread frosting (made as directed on the package)
1/2 C. thawed whipped topping
Stonewall Kitchens Dulce de Leche*, if desired

*Available in our International Food Courts.

Preheat oven to 350 degrees. In a 1-quart saucepan, cook butter, whipping cream and brown sugar over low heat just until butter has melted. Pour into a 13 x 9 inch pan. Sprinkle toasted pecans and top with thinly sliced apples. In a large bowl, beat cake mix, water, oil and eggs together on low speed until moistened. Beat on medium speed 2 minutes. Spoon batter over the apple mixture.

Bake 40 - 45 minutes or until toothpick inserted near center comes out clean. Cool in the pan for 10 minutes. Place a heatproof platter over the cake pan and carefully invert. In a small bowl, mix frosting and whipped topping. Serve warm cake topped with frosting mixture and drizzled with Dulce de Leche, warmed to thin out.
